Intermediate stages to the destinations

The idea came in 2020 through the Berlin pop-up bike paths (Corona paths) and this PopUpit idea can be extended to many areas:

- There are already a few pop-up bike paths in Germany, but ...
- Distance lanes, in addition to faster innovation, also allow new networks as well as social and business parking bays.
- in this sense it offers opportunities to the further growing ecological transformation ...

Further stages and opportunities

There are plenty of opportunities, and the state cannot regulate everything. Of course, flexibility and ideas are needed to achieve something:

-  for example Blockchains offer opportunities for transparency ...
-  Social networks should emerge anew after EU data protection and bring real benefits.
-  the use of artificial intelligence (AI) brings further opportunities, but these require binding ethics ...
